With Amadeus Hotels, we've taken the complexity out of booking hotels by providing the content and the technology to meet the needs of today's travellers and help build a profitable hotels business for travel professionals.

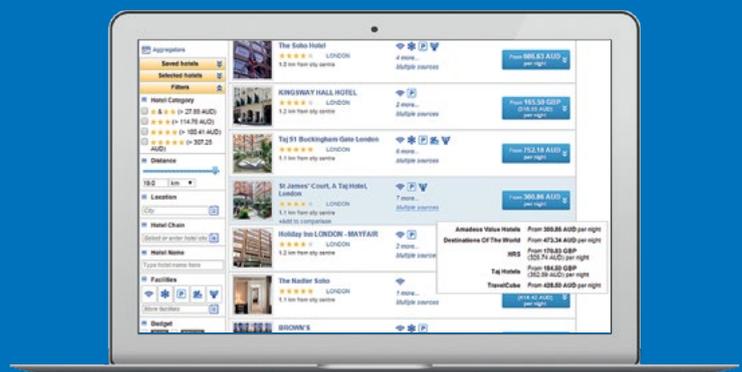

Amadeus Hotels is the ultimate hotel marketplace. It empowers travel sellers by providing access to a world of properties and room options from one integrated shopping window. This ensures you can compare and find the best rate for the right hotel, fast. Our solution is tailored to reflect different business models to manage content in real-time at different points-of-sale. You can reflect a commission-based model, a service charge, a net-rate/mark-up model or negotiated rates, depending on the booker. This ensures that you sell and find hotel content more efficiently.

- Clearly displayed hotel options through one single shopping window allows you to make better decisions more efficiently.
- More relevant content, seamlessly integrated from hotel chains, representation companies, independent hotels and leading aggregators.
